Office of the President

November 1993

Dear Friends:

The 1992-93 fiscal year has confirmed once again the dynamic force generated by the vigor of youth, the vision of faculty and administrators, and the loyalty of alumni and friends.

We had a good year at Bridgewater College, as this President's Report and Honor Roll of Donors will attest. Blessed by the generosity of Dr. Robert M. McKinney and many others, our $60 million fundraising effort, Projection 21: An Adventure in Excellence, is off to a gratifying start. More than one-third of the goal has been raised. Later in this report, you will see the details of how Projection 21 is progressing and of how the support of each of you is being used to assure the continuing excellence of Bridgewater College.

The dynamics at work at Bridgewater during the year just completed are best illustrated by the progress being made on our proposed new science center, one of the major components of the Projection 21 campaign. The architectural plans are being completed; the site is being graded; access roads have been reconfigured to assure smooth flow of traffic on the portion of the campus north of Dinkel Avenue. The Board of Trustees voted in the spring of 1993 to take advantage of attractive interest rates and issue bonds to build the 72,000-square-foot science center, renovate Bowman Hall, and refinance our current debt. Working through the Bridgewater Industrial Development Authority and the Rockingham County Industrial Development Authority, the college sold $20 million in bonds that were sufficiently attractive to investors that the issue was over-subscribed. The college was given an excellent financial rating, and the bonds sold at interest rates ranging from 5.01 to 6.0 percent.

Preliminary plans are being made to break ground for the new science center in April 1994, with completion in the spring of 1996; renovations to Bowman Hall are planned for the summer of 1996 with the expectation that both the new facility and the modernized Bowman Hall will be available for use in the fall of 1996.

This is an ambitious undertaking, both in terms of the unrestricted financial support we must have to meet our obligations and the fairly tight construction schedule needed if we are to appropriately serve our students.

Your help, your prayers, and your suggestions will be accepted with gratitude. We have made the dynamic start we must have to be ready for the 21st Century; the challenge lies in completing the task we have set for ourselves and the institution we revere.

Sincerely,

Wayne F. Geisert
President

HIGHLIGHTS OF 1992-93

Progress toward construction of a state-of-the-art science center, one of the primary recommendations of the Bridgewater College Long-Range Planning Committee's 1990 report, Preparing for the Twenty-First Century, gained momentum during the 1992-93 fiscal year.

In the spring of 1993, the Bridgewater College Board of Trustees, noting favorable interest rates and affirming the desirability of a new science center, approved issuing bonds to finance the center's construction and the renovation of Bowman Hall. Bowman, built in 1953, houses the biology, chemistry and physics departments, which will be moved to the new facility, and also is home to the departments of economics and business, psychology, mathematics and computer science, and the C.E. Shull Computing Center. In addition, the trustees authorized refinancing current debt through the bond issue.

Working through the Bridgewater Industrial Development Authority and the Rockingham County Industrial Development Authority, the college prepared to sell $20 million in industrial development bonds early in the 1993-94 fiscal year.

As the financing package was being developed, architects were working on completion of plans for the 72,000-square-foot science center. The three-story brick structure, with a columned balcony over an arched entry trimmed in stone, will be located on the north side of Dinkel Avenue between Geisert and Wakeman halls. The farmhouse and barn now on the site are being removed; the present greenhouse will be moved and incorporated into the new science center.

Groundbreaking is tentatively planned for April 1994, with completion of the science center targeted for the spring of 1996. Bowman Hall renovations are scheduled for the summer of 1996; both Bowman and the new center, as yet unnamed, are expected to be ready for use when the fall term opens in 1996.

Constructing a science center and renovating Bowman Hall are two key goals of Projection 21: An Adventure in Excellence, the college's $60 million fundraising effort begun in April of 1992. At the close of the fiscal year, more than $22.5 million had been received or pledged toward the goal.

"Attaining 37.6 percent of the goal in the first 15 months of the campaign is encouraging," said William D. Wampler, national chairman of Projection 21 and secretary of the Board of Trustees. "Seeing the science building start to take shape on the campus should be an impetus to others to get involved in Projection 21.

"The opportunities for Bridgewater College in the 21st Century are nearly unlimited," Mr. Wampler added. "It is imperative that we make certain that we are prepared to offer our students the teachers and the facilities to help them acquire the knowledge and confidence they will need to meet the challenges. Reaching our $60 million goal by the year 2000 is one way we can assure that Bridgewater College is prepared."

Another turning point in the history of the college came in April of 1993, when Dr. Wayne F. Geisert announced that he will retire as Bridgewater College's president in late 1994.

Dr. Geisert began his 30th year in the presidency on July 1, 1993.

His tenure has seen the completion of Heritage Hall and the construction of Dillon Hall, the Kline Campus Center, Moomaw Hall, Wakeman Hall, and Geisert Hall; the renovation and linking of historic Founders' and Wardo halls into Flory Hall; the enlargement of Nininger Hall to accommodate first the addition of the indoor swimming pool and later the addition of a weight room, training facilities, and offices; the development of Jopson Field and the later reconstruction of the athletic fields following the November 1985 flood; the renovation of historic Yount Hall; and the development of the campus entrance areas on Dinkel Avenue as well as considerable redevelopment of various campus areas.

During Dr. Geisert's tenure, a new academic calendar was adopted to provide three 10-week terms and one three-week Interterm, and Bridgewater's involvement in the Brethren Colleges Abroad program was expanded to expose students and faculty to an enlarged vision of international education and service.

Dr. Geisert also has overseen three successful fund-raising campaigns — a $1.5 million capital effort relating to the Kline Campus Center and Moomaw Hall projects, an $8 million effort tied to the college's centennial in 1980, and an $18 million campaign, Impact/91, which was completed in mid-1991 — and the start of Projection 21, the current $60 million campaign.

After receiving Dr. Geisert's retirement announcement, W. Wallace Hatcher, chairman of the Board of Trustees, named eight trustees to serve as a presidential search committee, headed by Trustee James L. Keeler.

ENROLLMENT

Freshman enrollment increased in the fall of 1992, from 232 in 1991 to 255 last fall, an encouraging sign even though overall enrollment showed a second decline in as many years. Total headcount enrollment was 921 (421 men and 500 women), down from the 961 registered in the fall of 1991.

The graduating class in the spring of 1992 had been the largest in the college's history (230); the '93 graduating class numbered 202.

Demographic projections indicate a sharp rise in the number of high school graduates beginning in 1994 through the end of the decade.

Fall enrollment included students from 16 states (75.8 percent from Virginia) and 10 foreign countries (16 students representing England, France, Germany, Japan, Nigeria, People's Republic of China, Spain, Sri Lanka, Switzerland, and United Arab Emirates).

SCHOLARSHIPS

For the 1992-93 academic year, 808 Bridgewater College students benefitted from $3,048,105 in institutional grants/scholarships and SEOG funds. Of those 808 students, 68 percent received need-based aid. Total student financial aid administered through the college, including scholarships, student loans, and student employment, totaled approximately $6,683,000.

Listed elsewhere in this report are the endowed scholarship funds which received contributions during the 1992-93 fiscal year.

Once again in 1992-93, the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation, Inc., of Atlanta, Georgia, awarded Bridgewater College funds for scholarships for deserving young women. The grant of $56,000 assisted 37 Bridgewater students.

FACILITIES IMPROVEMENTS

A major project completed during the summer of 1993 was the upgrading of the academic computing facilities in Bowman Hall. Eighteen new IBM-compatible personal computers (PCs) were installed in the computer labs, each unit enhanced by a color monitor and two diskette drives in addition to the hard drive. Two dot matrix printers and one laser printer along with a broad assortment of software also are available in the labs. The computer labs are open seven days a week, including five days until 11 p.m.

Other projects undertaken focused on renovations and repairs and also on preliminary work associated with construction of the new science center. Access to the Geisert Hall parking lot was modified to segregate residence hall parking from the planned parking facilities for the science center.

CAMPUS LIFE

Bridgewater College students involved themselves in two new campus-wide activities during the year — intercollegiate College Bowl competition and Environmental Awareness Week.

Nearly 10 percent of the student body joined teams to compete for the Bridgewater College Championship in a three-day College Bowl playoff in January. Quizzed on academic subjects as well as general knowledge and trivia, the "BC Jeopardizers" (Brian Cunningham, '94; Matt Curry, '93; Travis Long, '95; Joel Morgan, '94; and Greg

EARTH AWARENESS — Smokey Bear joins in the fun of Earth Awareness Week on campus

Rose, '94) won the 21-team event. An All-Star team (Douglas Fischer, '95; Detra Funk, '96; Jarrett Hatcher, '93; Lance Kenney, '95; and Doug Stowers, '95) was named from among the best competitors from the non-winning teams. Both squads competed in the Virginia College Bowl championship at Hampden-Sydney, where the All-Stars tied for second place. The All-Stars also participated in an invitational regional meet, the University of Virginia's "Wahoo War of the Minds."

Environmental Awareness Week, a project of the Student Senate, was held during the week of the national observance of Earth Day in April. Featured events included an environmental information fair; two addresses by Dr. Lester Brown, president of Worldwatch Institute; community service projects to clean a section of the North River bank adjacent to the campus and to begin a downtown beautification project; and a children's program that included a visit by Smokey Bear and a hands-on introduction to various wildlife provided by the Wildlife Center of Virginia.

Special events again filled the calendar. Freshmen and transfer students were welcomed over orientation weekend, beginning August 28, 1992, and parents returned October 10 to get firsthand accounts from both students and faculty about how the first six weeks of the college year had progressed. Musical groups made their on-campus debuts, and the Pinion Players presented an election-year comedy, "The Lady of the House," which earned Jennifer Shifflett, '96, the "Best Actress" award for her portrayal of Congresswoman Didi M. Mayflower.

On October 31, alumni joined with students in celebrating Homecoming. Chosen as queen to reign over the week-long festivities was Holly Botkin, '93, who was escorted by Dennis Dysart, '93, the student body president.

Handel's Messiah, performed by the Oratorio Choir, brought a standing-room-only crowd to the Bridgewater Church of the Brethren on December 6. Madrigal Dinners, the traditional re-creation of a holiday dinner in Elizabethan England, filled the Kline Campus Center with the aroma of good food, the sound of Christmas music, and the merriment of student-produced skits Dec. 14-16. The annual vespers on the mall, featuring a live nativity scene surrounded by flickering luminaries, signaled the close of the '92 calendar year as students prepared for their Christmas break.

Winter brought the production of A.R. Gurney's "Richard Cory" with Brent Hull, '93, in the title role. Kim Gibson, '95, won "Best Supporting Actress" honors for her portrayal of Louise, Cory's extramarital love interest.

Interterm '93 offered international study opportunities, including courses taught in Europe, Australia, and Costa Rica, as well as internships, domestic travel, and on-campus classes. A theatre production class produced "A Clowns' Play," which was presented to approximately 5,000 area elementary school students who filled Cole Hall with squeals of laughter and delight through nine performances over five days.

In March, Shane Ritchie, '93, starred in the one-man show, "Vincent," which he co-directed with Kathryn M. Neff, '93. The play by Leonard Nimoy recounts the life of Vincent Van Gogh from the perspective of the artist's brother, Theo. The role earned Mr. Ritchie the award as "Best Actor" for 1992-93.

In April, the campus again hosted the Church of the Brethren's Southeastern Youth Roundtable, which involved high school students from as far away as Maryland and Florida for a weekend of discussion, recreation, and worship. As is customary, a student-directed one-act play highlighted one evening's program. "Goodbye to the Clown," directed by Missie Cullum, '94, was selected for the '93 roundtable.

Other one-acts presented April 15-17 were "A Personal Thing," directed by Chad Wright, '94, and "Graveyard Cleaning-Off Day" directed by James Klawon, '96, who also earned "Best Supporting Actor" honors for the back hills character he created for the show.

As April came to a close, Stephanie Coffman and Neil Burke, both '93, were chosen as May Queen and King and reigned over a celebration "Under a Southern Sky."

The 1992-93 Lyceum Series presented four programs — Calliope, a renaissance band; pianist Frank Wiens; guitarist David Richter; and Chanticleer, a male vocal ensemble.

Bridgewater students were recognized for excellence in numerous ways. Betsy Bechtel, '93, sang in the 84-voice National Women's Honor Choir that performed at the American Choral Directors Association conference in San Antonio. Otio Okilo, '96, earned All-America honors in both indoor and outdoor track, placing third in the triple jump in the NCAA Division III national indoor championships and placing fifth in the NCAA Division III national outdoor track and field championships.

The Talon was recognized by the American Scholastic Press Association (ASPA) as the top student newspaper in the nation among colleges with enrollment between 500 and 1,000. The 1992 edition of Ripples, the yearbook, received ASPA's "First Place with Special Merit" award. Bridgewater's Society of Physics Students (SPS) Chapter won Outstanding Chapter honors from the American Institute of Physics, and the Student Virginia Education Association chapter earned the top award in competition with colleges and universities across Virginia.

Bridgewater students again organized a One Sky, One World International Kite Fly in the fall and a CROP walk in the spring that raised more than $5,000 to help feed the world's hungry. Eleven students volunteered to use their spring break repairing damage caused by Hurricane Andrew in Florida; just before Christmas, other students worked in a Washington, D.C., soup kitchen and met with advocates for that city's homeless. The Student Council on Religious Activities sponsored a concert by Randy Stonehill, a contemporary Christian musician.

The women's volleyball team won the Old Dominion Athletic Conference championship, finishing the year with a 25-7 record. Coach Mary Frances Heishman was named the ODAC Coach of the Year, and Julie Glover, '93, was named the ODAC Player of the Year.

Women's Basketball Coach Laura Mapp, who ranks second in the nation in career basketball victories in NCAA Division III competition, was named ODAC Coach of the Year after her squad posted a 15-12 mark and advanced to the ODAC tournament semifinals.

For the year, the football team posted a 3-7 season; soccer, in the first year of intercollegiate competition, 1-11; field hockey, 10-7; men's basketball, 12-12; lacrosse, 7-8; baseball, 19-11; golf, 4-12; men's tennis, 3-7; and women's tennis, 2-10.

FACULTY RECOGNITION

Dr. Nyangoni

Dr. Betty W. Nyangoni, director of the Office on Nonpublic Schools in Washington, D.C., was the Jessie Ball duPont Visiting Professor of Sociology and Education at Bridgewater College for the 1992-93 Winter Term and Interterm. Dr. Nyangoni's appointment was made through the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges with support from the Jessie Ball duPont Fund to assist VFIC members in obtaining distinguished minority faculty for interim assignments. During Dr. Nyangoni's service at Bridgewater, she addressed a banquet honoring student teachers and their supervising teachers and principals from neighboring school districts.

The Jessie Ball duPont Fund also extended for a third year a summer science program for middle-school teachers. Dr. Michael S. Hensley, Professor of Biology, directed the '93 program.

Professor W. Steve Watson, Associate Professor of Religion and Philosophy, received the 1993 Martha B. Thornton Faculty Recognition Award for his outstanding teaching and advising of students.

Dr. Richard L. Bowman, Associate Professor of Physics, with support from Research Corporation of America continued his research on the conformation of macromolecules. Dr. Sarah E. Swank, Professor of Biology, received a post-doctoral fellowship from the University of Virginia to support her research on survival of tree seedlings at the Mountain Lake Biological Station. One of Dr. Swank's students, Philip M. Bushong, '94, received a Research Experiences for Undergraduates Award from the National Science Foundation to conduct research under Dr. Swank's direction. Dr. Thomas M. Kinder, Athletic Director and Professor of Physical Education, edited a book on sports management, Organizational Management Administration for Athletic Programs, 3rd Edition.

At the close of the academic year, Dr. James J. Kirkwood, Professor of English, retired after teaching for 25 years at Bridgewater College.

SPECIAL RECOGNITIONS

Throughout the year, Bridgewater honored outstanding achievements and records of service of special friends of the college.

At the President's Dinner on November 6, 1992, the featured speaker was Mr. L. The 1993 Spiritual Life Institute in March 1993, focusing on the use of the new "The Hymnal: A Worship Book," was led by Dr. Nancy Faus of Bethany Theological Seminary and a team of Brethren and Mennonite musicians. Outstanding Service Awards were presented to the Rev. Raymon E. Eller, '36, a retired pastor now living in North Manchester, Indiana, and the Rev. Thomas W. Geiman, '60, pastor of Mill Creek Church of the Brethren at Port Republic, Virginia.

On April 2, 1993, Mr. William Z. Cline, '41, a retired public relations and fund-raising executive, spoke at the Founder's Day convocation, and Mr. William H. Groseclose, a Bridgewater College trustee and Chairman and CEO of Dominion Bank of the Shenandoah Valley, spoke at the Founder's Day Dinner. Both speakers were presented Outstanding Achievement Awards.

During Alumni Weekend, May 7-9, 1993, five Bridgewater graduates were recognized. On May 7, Mrs. Naomi Miller West, '29, and Mr. James W. Moyers, Sr., '32, received Ripples Medals, the top awards of the Ripples Society, the association of alumni of 50 or more years ago. Mrs. West was cited for her work with refugees and her commitment to peace; Mr. Moyers was recognized for his work in education, business, and public service.

The following day, at the annual Alumni Banquet, Dr. Max H. Myers, '58, was named the 1993 Distinguished Alumnus; Ms. Donna Price Walker, '75, and Mr. Jonathan D.W. Lyle, '79, were presented Young Alumnus Awards. Dr. Myers' award cited his accomplishments as chief of the biometric research and analytic studies section of the National Cancer Institute. Ms. Walker was recognized for her work as director of tax administration for PPG Industries, Inc.; Mr. Lyle, a partner in Response Marketing Group USA Inc., was cited for his work in establishing business ties between the United States and Russia.

Also at the Alumni Banquet, a Presidential Citation honoring the work of the late David L. Holl was presented to his family. Mr. Holl, who died October 29, 1992, served Bridgewater College over the years as Director of Development, Assistant to the President for Church Relations, and Director of Deferred Giving.

EXTENDED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Each year, Bridgewater College offers a variety of educational programs for persons from beyond the regular student body.

The Spiritual Life Institute and the Southeastern Youth Roundtable, both described earlier in this report, continued in 1992-93 to draw significant attendance.

Two estate planning seminars were held, hosted by the Office of Planned Giving. The December 1992 seminar for professional financial advisors was led by Professor Edward O. Henneman, Associate Professor of Law and former Associate Dean at the Washington and Lee University School of Law. In April 1993, Mr. W. William Gust, a partner in the Roanoke, Virginia, law firm of Gentry Locke Rakes & Moore, led a seminar for non-professionals.

Telecourses and Elderhostel programs also were offered, and the college hosted church conferences and summer camps, including the Art Monk Football Camp and basketball, volleyball, and cheerleading camps.

ENDOWED LECTURES

Four special lectureships captured the interest of the Bridgewater College community during the year.

From September 28 through October 1, 1992, Dr. Tom Sine led the annual Spiritual Focus Week program, which is supported by the Thomas F. Staley Foundation. Dr. Sine is a consultant in futures research and a minister-at-large with World Concern.

Dr. Nicholas T. Goncharoff, a native of Kiev, Ukraine, and president of US/Russian Enterprises, was the 1993 Glen Weimer Lecturer on peace and peacemaking. His addresses on March 29 and 30, 1993, were on "Rediscovering Russia" and "The New Russia and International Business."

On April 7 and 8, 1993, Dr. John G. Healey, Executive Director of Amnesty International USA, was the W. Harold Row Lecturer and spoke on "Human Rights in the 1990s."

Dr. Lester R. Brown, founder and president of Worldwatch Institute, presented the Anna Beahm Mow Lectures on April 21 and 22, 1993. Dr. Brown spoke on "Launching the Environmental Revolution" and "Food, Population, and the Environment."

COMMENCEMENT

A downpour just as the 1993 Commencement procession was about to begin forced the ceremony into Nininger Hall, but failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the 202 seniors participating. Scott A. Moomaw, a computer science and mathematics major from Mt. Jackson, Virginia, graduated first in the class, and Andra G. Showalter, a biology major from Hinton, Virginia, was ranked second; 42 graduates received academic honors.

Dr. John T. Casteen III, President of the University of Virginia, addressed the Class of '93, asking the graduates to use their strength, vigor, and character to build the world that his generation would like to have built, but did not.

Dr. Casteen, a former Secretary of Education for the Commonwealth of Virginia, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Public Administration degree.

At the baccalaureate service, Dr. Allen C. Deeter, Executive Director of International Studies with Brethren Colleges Abroad, spoke on his vision of a world community. He was awarded the honorary degree, Doctor of Humane Letters, during the commencement program.

The 1993 graduating class was second in size only to the 1992 class, which numbered 230 graduates.

FACTS ON FINANCE — 1992-93

An analysis of the operating statement for the year ended June 30, 1993, and the balance sheet as of June 30, 1993, confirms that the support provided to Bridgewater College by its alumni and friends has again made possible an excellent program in private higher education while also maintaining a sound fiscal operation. The ability of the college to uphold its tradition of operating on a balanced budget was due in no small measure to the generous annual fund and unrestricted gift support of its benefactors.

On June 30, the net worth of the college carried a book value of $46,413,452 and an actual value of approximately $82,000,000. Since the assets of the college, including its physical facilities and its endowment investments, are carried on the books at acquisition costs less depreciation (rather than at current market prices and/or insurable values), the actual worth of the college's total assets is substantially more than shown in the balance sheet.

Particularly noteworthy is the fact that the book value of the Bridgewater College endowment grew by $10,033,858 during the year, thanks in large part to the generous gift of the late Dr. Robert M. McKinney, making an endowment book value of $27,404,942 and a market value of approximately $33,250,000. Because the increase was realized at various times during the fiscal year, the earnings reflected in the statement of operations for the year do not reflect fully the improved status of the endowment fund.

Within the context of the total income and expenditure patterns of the college, specific attention is directed to its Educational and General Expenditures totaling $11,978,676.

CONTRIBUTED SUPPORT

The generosity of one benefactor, the late Dr. Robert M. McKinney, boosted private contributions to Bridgewater College to an all-time high of more than $11.7 million in fiscal year 1992-93.

Dr. McKinney, a long-time trustee of the college and a retired research chemist, left Bridgewater more than $10 million at his death in January 1992. The college received the bulk of the McKinney estate during the 1992-93 fiscal year. The gift, the largest in the college's 113-year history, was placed in the endowment fund; currently earnings are being used exclusively for financial assistance for students attending Bridgewater College.

The $11.7 million total for 1992-93 set a level of annual giving more than double the previous record at Bridgewater. In 1985-86, the college raised what was then a record $4.2 million. Then, the college was in the midst of an $18 million fund-raising campaign, Impact/91 (over-subscribed to $19.7 million), and was simultaneously seeking financial help in rebuilding athletic fields that had been destroyed during the 1985 flood.

In 1992, Dr. McKinney's gift opened a new fund-raising effort, Projection 21: An Adventure in Excellence, which seeks to raise $60 million by the year 2000. On June 30, 1993, more than $22.5 million (37.6 percent of the goal) had been received or pledged.

Other highlights of the 1992-93 giving report show the number of alumni donors increased 3 percent (from 2,320 to 2,393) and the number of parents who made contributions increased 31 percent (from 165 to 216).

In large part as a result of the McKinney gift, alumni contributions approached $10.5 million, with alumni contributions to the Annual Fund rising by 8 percent, from just over $291,000 to more than $315,000. Gifts from friends of the college to the Annual Fund increased 22 percent, from $55,300 to $67,600.

Bridgewater's share of corporate contributions raised by the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges (VFIC) increased 8 percent from just over $198,000 in 1991-92 to more than $214,200 in 1992-93. The VFIC is a fund-raising coalition of 15 of Virginia's old-line independent colleges.

Gifts in the form of bequests, in addition to Dr. McKinney's, also increased, led by a gift of more than $300,000 from the late Mrs. Eva E. Secrist of Gaithersburg, Maryland.

Support from Church of the Brethren congregations and from businesses, corporations and foundations declined slightly. Church giving slipped from nearly $127,000 in 1991-92 to $120,600 in 1992-93; business contributions, other than those received through the VFIC, dropped from $314,000 a year ago to just over $228,400 in 1992-93.

In addition to the gifts and grants reflected in the table below, some of which relate to student financial assistance, Bridgewater College received other funds totaling $1,234,770 for direct use by its students. Of this amount, Federal funds totaled $329,679 (Pell Grants), and Commonwealth of Virginia funds totaled $905,091 (Tuition Assistance Program $839,091 and College Scholarship Assistance Program $66,000).

BUSINESS, INDUSTRY, AND FOUNDATION DONORS

A Special Thanks...

Bridgewater College gratefully acknowledges the interest several major foundations have shown in the educational program. The Jessie Ball duPont Fund made the second of three grants to the President's Discretionary Fund, continued its support for the Summer Science Program for middle school teachers, and supported the VFIC-duPont Visiting Professor. The Deluxe Corporation Foundation awarded a grant to purchase a microprocessor and printer to produce on-line transcripts in the registrar's office; the Thomas F. Staley Foundation again supported Spiritual Focus Week; and the Lettie Pate Whitehead Foundation continued to provide scholarship assistance.

Donald A. McFall

McFall Leads Business Drive

Donald A. McFall, president and chief executive officer of First Virginia Bank-Planters and a parent of a current Bridgewater College student, chaired the 1992-93 Business and Professional Campaign which raised $106,000 in Harrisonburg, Staunton, Rockingham County, and Augusta County in support of the college. Volunteers from the business community contacted more than 200 colleagues on behalf of the college. B. Randolph Roller, a Harrisonburg banker, was awarded the college's Don Glick Volunteer of the Year Award as captain of the top fundraising team in the campaign.

VIRGINIA FOUNDATION FOR INDEPENDENT COLLEGES

The contributions shown in this report as coming to Bridgewater College through the Virginia Foundation for Independent Colleges represent Bridgewater's share of the proceeds from the cooperative efforts of 15 of Virginia's senior private colleges and many hard-working leaders of the Virginia business community. Other institutions sharing VFIC contributions are Emory & Henry, Hampden-Sydney, Hollins, Lynchburg, Mary Baldwin, Randolph-Macon, Randolph-Macon Woman's, Roanoke, Sweet Briar, and Virginia Wesleyan colleges and Marymount University, Shenandoah University, the University of Richmond, and Washington & Lee University.

Since the VFIC was founded in 1952, it has raised $66.6 million for its member institutions. In 1992-93, 773 contributions totaling a record $4,296,606 provided an average share per member college of $232,950. Bridgewater's share was $214,275, bringing the college's cumulative total to more than $4.16 million.

ALUMNI

The numbers accompanying each class list are the percentage of alumni solicited who made donations to Bridgewater College between July 1, 1992, and June 30, 1993, and the total amount contributed by members of the class during that period. To protect the confidentiality of the amount of gifts, no dollar amount is given in cases where fewer than three class members made contributions during the fiscal year.

Members of the Class of 1943 gathered on Alumni Day, May 8, 1993, as new inductees into the Ripples Society, the organization of the Bridgewater College Alumni Association for alumni whose classes graduated 50 or more years ago.

ALUMNI OF AFFILIATED SCHOOLS

The term "Bridgewater College alumnus" embraces many supporters of the college who completed part or all of their high school or college educations at schools which later merged with or were affiliated with Bridgewater College. The Daleville school system included both Daleville Academy and Daleville College; when that system merged with the Bridgewater College school system in 1924, the college was operated at Bridgewater as Bridgewater-Daleville College and the two academies were combined at Daleville, Virginia, as Daleville Academy. Daleville Academy closed in 1933, and the name Bridgewater-Daleville College was restored to simply Bridgewater College in 1951. Blue Ridge College, a two-year college at New Windsor, Md., was affiliated with Bridgewater-Daleville beginning in 1929 until Blue Ridge closed in 1937. Hebron Seminary, a high school at Nokesville, Va., was affiliated with Bridgewater College from 1921-24. Hebron closed in 1924. Today, the following alumni of Blue Ridge Academy and College, Bridgewater Academy, Daleville Academy and College, and Hebron Seminary retain their affection for their former schools at the same time that they offer their support to Bridgewater College. We are proud to include them in the alumni family.
